Foreign Principal

Korea Institute for International
Economic Policy (KIEP)

Activities/Services

The Korea Institute for International Economic Policy is a research institute funded by the Republic of Korea government to conduct studies and analyses of global economic issues. Its aim is to help South Korea pursue a more effective international economic policy. KIEP assesses the implications of recent developments in the global economy for the government and carries out research in partnership with other institutions and organizations. The registrant's objective is to promote discussion on the economic relations and other bilateral issues between the Republic of Korea and the United States.

12. During this 6 month reporting period, has the registrant, on behalf of any foreign principal, engaged in political activity⁵ as defined below? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures, social media, internet postings, or media broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter. The response must include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation and dissemination of informational materials.

Set forth below a general description of the registrant's political activities.

Through its publications, programs and public events, Korea Economic Institute seeks to advance scholarship and understanding of the Republic of Korea in ways that will inform policymakers and American public of the security, economic, and political implications of our connections to the Korean peninsula. Please see attached document for more details.

Set forth below in the required detail the registrant's political activities.

Foreign Principal	Date	Contact	Method	Purpose
